

Freading on an Android Tablet* and Smartphones

must be compatible with Android Market*

<input type="checkbox"/>	Before you begin, if you do not already have an Adobe ID , register for one at: www.adobe.com . Go to Sign In, and click on “Don’t have an Adobe ID?” NOTE: Be sure to write down and save your Adobe ID and password you may need it again to authenticate other devices.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Using an Internet browser on your Android Device visit https://bartoncounty.freading.com .
<input type="checkbox"/>	If you don’t already have the free Freading app, you can download the Freading app for Android devices at:  https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.libraryideas.freading&feature=search_result
<input type="checkbox"/>	Once installed, open the Freading app and select “app options” button.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Tap on the Store option.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Browse the collection for an eBook
<input type="checkbox"/>	Tap on the eBook cover and click the Login to Download link below the cover. A new page will appear, enter 64759 as the Zip Code and tap on the Find Library option.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Select Barton County Library
<input type="checkbox"/>	Log in using your Library Card Number and PIN
<input type="checkbox"/>	Tap on the Download ePub link to download the eBook.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Open the eBook with the Freading app . The first time you open an eBook you may be prompted to activate the app with an Adobe ID.